Naturopathic Doctors in Regina - Richard Bartlett, a Naturopath and chiropractor developed a transformative healing system referred to as Matrix Energetics in the year 1997 after he experienced a life-changing event. Mr. Bartlett discovered that he can restore the mental, emotional, physical and spiritual balance in his clients simply by touching them lightly with focused intention. As an additional bonus, he was able to correct misalignments that had troubled some of his clients for several years. Richard discovered that he could teach anyone this technique that combines subtle energy with active imagination, quantum physics and focused intent.

The body is a resonating matrix which has a biological field of information. According to the philosophy behind Matrix Energetics, the patterns within this matrix could become disrupted through emotional or physical injury. These disruptions can result in ingrained perceptions or habits that could block a person from acquiring a state of happiness, prosperity, health and other constructive situations. Matrix Energetics works to eliminate blockages, shift these embedded patterns and transform core beliefs in order to enable the individual to reach their goals to be able create the quality of life and kind of life preferred.

Practitioners of Matrix Energetics think that the limitations are the basis of a person's concerns and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics could immediately remove these restrictions. This particular healing system is believed to eliminate the sources of both temporary and chronic issues like for example emotional trauma, headaches, muscle spasms, scoliosis and fibromyalgia among others.

The Matrix Energetics system is designed to stand alone. Many practitioners utilize it in order to improve other healing methods although it does not need to be at all combined with whatever other practice. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner is capable of changing the belief system of the client and could transform his or her beliefs about the nature of disease, the healing process and the structure of reality. Usually, recipients can feel a wave pass through their bodies as their previous view of reality is transformed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

At the quantum level, space and time are not part of actuality. The consciousness of a person, according to the quantum theory, could have an effect on how subatomic particles behave. In view of the fact that the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that can be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta could appear everywhere simultaneously and even move forward and backward in time. A person's consciousness could affect these quanta to transform physical matters and emotions. This information and these views have been integrated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the shifts that take place on the cellular level within the person.
